

Louise DuArt

B I O G R A P H Y

*L*ouise DuArt, often called the world's greatest impressionist, continues to astound critics and celebrities alike with her dead-on impressions of America's most famous people. Her talent for replicating celebrities in fun-loving style has made Louise DuArt one of the most revered impressionists today. Her more than one hundred marquee characters range from Barbara Walters to Judge Judy, Joan Rivers to Jane Fonda, and Barbra Streisand to George Burns.

Currently Louise DuArt is starring with Tim Conway and Harvey Korman in the box office smash Together Again, a touring show that recreates classic sketches from the Carol Burnett television Show. She is also seen nationally hosting the popular talk show Living The Life, every morning on ABC Family Channel, while her other current series, Café DuArt, has been hailed as one of cable television's most innovative comedy-variety programs. Previously she hosted a game show strip for Lifetime Television, and her Showtime comedy specials were Emmy-nominated.

Louise DuArt's All Star Christmas Carol, an annual musical/comedy spoof on the Dicken's classic, has broken Atlantic City attendance records at the famed Tropicana Resort, and her hit show The Many Voices Of Louise DuArt received rave reviews and multiple extensions at the Grand Casino on the Gulf. Previously her creation Glued To The Tube enjoyed similar success in Atlantic City.

On Broadway, Louise received critical acclaim for her starring roles in the long-running hit Catskills On Broadway, and in the comedy/musical Dreamstuff.

Louise DuArt first realized her talent as a teenager when she would disguise her voice for friends and call the school to excuse them from classes. Her talent continued to develop as a young homemaker and her uncanny ability to mimic others in the community led to a spot on

Star Search and her subsequent discovery by Donna Summer with whom she toured for two years.

Recently featured on Entertainment Tonight, Louise has been seen on The Today Show, Hollywood Squares, and is a popular voice for such animated primetime series as Family Guy.

In demand as entertainer/emcee for corporate dates, Louise also shares the stage for An Evening of Inspiration and Comedy with her husband Squire Rushnell, speaker/TV CEO and best-selling author of When God Winks. The dynamic couple also present the hilarious and highly popular program Love Laughs: Everything I Know About Wrecking Relationships I Learned In My Last Marriage.

FOR MORE INFORMATION
PLEASE CONTACT: